

Temporary Library Cards

A Temporary Library Card from Plum Creek Library System is available to individuals who cannot provide address verification or are in temporary housing. Patrons with a Temporary Library Card may check out two physical items at a time and are limited to Books, Audio Materials, and DVDs. Temporary Library Cards may also be used to access library Internet computers and have full access to all online collections owned by PCLS. Temporary Library Cards expire after 90 days and can be renewed in person.
